Forecast for Tuesday 22 Nov 2022

Weather: Any early fog at lower levels mainly in the west slowly lifting. A generally dry day, some breaks in the cloud allowing some sunny intervals, especially to the west. Thicker cloud may give some light rain and, above 700m, some sleet or snow, at first in the east.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 800m: 70% in the west, 40% across eastern parts.

Low cloud and visibility: Eastern parts will see extensive cloud with base 600 to 900m. Some shallow layers around 400m possible in the Spey Valley. Out of the cloud the visibility will be mostly good.
